CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETS AND DOES THINGS

A most thoroughly representative meeting of the Kauai Chamber of Commerce was held at its headquarters in the county building at 3:30 Thursday afternoon. It was the Chamber's regular April meeting, but on account of the members of the Hawaii Promotion Committee being on the island, considerable of the routine business was side-tracked and the time given to listening to highly interesting talks from the visitors. The meeting proceeded substantially as follows:

Treasurer Silva reported having paid the bill for printing the proceedings of the Civic Convention, just from the press, and that the sum of $390.96 remained in the treasury.

Chairman Sinclair Robinson, of the Transportation Committee, reported correspondence had with the I. I. S. N. Company respecting better steamer facilities.

Mr. Lydgate, of the Literary Committee of the last Civic Convention, reported that the proceedings had been printed and would be mailed out from Honolulu.

At the request of Mr. G. N.

Wilcox, a letter of the I. I. S. N. Company respecting the future schedule of the steamer Kinau was read. Two schemes were submitted one being substantially the old run of the W. G. Hall to Nawiliwili and Ahukini. This seemed to be favored by Messrs. Hans Isenberg, Judge Hofgaard and Colonel Broadbent, and Mr. R. L. Hughes moved that it be endorsed.

Mr. Knudsen made an earnest plea for the Waimea side of the island. That side was being given scant consideration in the proposed new arrangement, and the people would be greatly inconvenienced by it.

Mr. Wishard agreed that the Waimeaside was being given a cold deal. In taking the Kinau to the Lihue side it was the presumption that the Kilauea or a boat as good as the Kinau would be left on that run. Putting the Maui or a smaller steamer on that run would work a genuine hardship—so great, in fact, that in place of having such thing happen he would prefer not have the Kinau on the Lihue side at all.

There were several motions to (Continued on page 4.)

CANVASS MADE OF OUR ATTRACTIONS

Members of the Hawaii Promotion Committee, with several ladies and a photographer, completed a tour of Kauai last week and returned to Honolulu Saturday night. The committeemen in the party were Chairman E. A. Berndt, Secretary A. P. Taylor, G. H. Angus, W. D. Adams and J. D. McInerney, representing Oahu; W. O. Aiken, representing Maui; G. H. Vicars, representing Hawaii.

The committeemen arrived at Waimea Wednesday morning and were met by R. N. Oliver, T. Brandt and others, representing the Kauai Chamber of Commerce. That day was devoted to the Barking Sands (which were too wet to bark, however), Waimea and Olokele canyons, the night being spent at the Waimea hotel.

Thursday the party visited Kukuolono park and the Spouting Horn, arriving in Lihue in time for the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, mention of which is made elsewhere. That night was spent at Hotel Lihue.

Friday morning there was a turn around Lihue, trip to Wailua Falls and across country to Hanalei. All the principal points of interest close at hand were visited, including the Wainiha power house, Haena caves, etc. Lihue was reached again about noon, luncheon was had at the Fairview and the party departed aboard their steamer at 5 o'clock.

Ous To Lawai

Cards are out for a beach party and supper for members of the On Club and their invited guests at Lawai beach next Sunday, starting at 2:30 p.m. The function will be partially in the nature of a farewell to the R. W. T. Purvises, who have been consistent members of the club for a long time and are shortly leaving the island.

The Lihue band will play in Lihue park at 2:30 p. m. next Sunday.

DRAWINGS FOR THE CUP TOURNAMENT

Drawings were made by the Wall Dougherty Cup Committee last Sunday, deciding the order of play for the second semi-annual series of games in the contest for ownership, of the silver trophy, won last fall by Albert Horner, Jr., and Harrison Rice.

An entirely new team is entered this time the members of which are C. A. Rice and James Spalding—much interest being centered on the probable keen contest which will result.

The order of play is as follows:
1. E. W. Carden and W. M. Cooper vs. C. H. Wilcox and K. C. Hopper.
2. G. T. Greig and A. R. Glaisver vs. F. C. Morrow and C. S. Dole.
3. Harrison Rice and A. Horner, Jr. vs. C. A. Rice and James Spalding.
4. E. Knudsen and G. Rankin vs. W. M. Thompson and E. Murdoch.

Game number 4 is scheduled to be played off next Sunday and numbers 1 and 2 on May 14th. On account of the 2nd. Battalion luau on May 7th, no game has been set for that day.

Battalion Drill

Companies G and H, Major McBryde, had battalion drill on the Eleele baseball field Sunday afternoon and made a fine showing. In addition to the drill there was inspection and review, the reviewing officers being Colonel Broadbent, the lieutenant colonel and Captain Morrow. Quite a few people from the neighborhood witnessed the maneuvers of the companies.

Next Sunday afternoon Companies A, B and C, as a battalion, will have parade, inspection and review at Lihue, the time announced being 2:30 o'clock. This should be quite a large and interesting military function and will doubtless be witnessed by many Lihue people.

A QUEER FELLOW "TOUCHES" KAUAI

A man claiming to be from the city has pulled off a number of peculiar stunts on Kauai in the past two weeks or more and was finally "shipped" out to Honolulu by new-found friends in the last Mauna Loa.

The fellow arrived at Waimea about the time the Governor's party reached Lihue. At various places he made the claim that he was in the U. S. secret service, while to others he represented himself to be a writer for Collier's.

When the Waimea hotel man became insistent for his board money, the visitor asked time until he could see Governor Pinkham, whom he said would stand good for him. That was all right, and the man left in an auto for Lihue to interview the executive. In about two hours the hotel man received a call on the phone, and Governor Pinkham's voice said that the speaker would stand good for the hotel bill.

The visitor then became quite anxious to see Colonel Spalding and the homesteaders of Waipouli, this time claiming to be here from Washington to investigate the homesteading subject, but the chaffeurs had in the meanwhile gotten a line on him and refused to take the gentleman to Kealia until paid for the trip.

He borrowed $2 from a U. S. internal revenue man whom he happened to meet at the hotel and went back to Waimea at the expense of another party.

New found friends concluded that Kauai's roads were too straight for the visitor, made up enough money to square his petty bills (outside of the one the Governor stood good for) and literally "shipped" him back to Honolulu.

Committee To Town

The Chamber of Commerce does not intend to let go on the matter of getting suitable steamers for Kauai, and the committee appointed at the last meeting of the Chamber will leave for Honolulu this afternoon to take the matter up directly with the officials of the Inter-Island S. N. Company. The committee consists of the following: Chas. H. Wilcox, Lihue, chairman; E. A. Knudsen, Kekaha; Judge C. B. Hofgaard, Waimea; Sinclair Robinson, Makaweli; Major W. D. McBryde, Homesteads.

Lieut. Patterson

Fred Patterson, the Lihue attorney, has been named a second lieutenant in the National Guard and will take the place of Second Lieutenant Derby, resigned.

Passion Tide Services

The Passion Tide Vesper Services this year have been more than usually well attended, and more than usually interesting and impressive. The themes chosen, though simple and elemental, were nevertheless, of universal interest and profound reach, such as could not fail to find a response in every serious soul, and such as could not fail to be inspiring and helpful.

It speaks well for the spiritual vitality of the community, that in a time of such great material prosperity, so many of the leading people were ready to devote so much time and interest to the things of the higher life.

THIEVES OPEN UP 'AH CHOCK'S GRAVE

The grave of the late Ah Chock, the wealthy merchant of Kapaia who died a year ago, was opened by some person or persons unknown between Thursday night and Sunday. The police have been working on the matter but have thus far discovered no clue.

The circumstances indicate that the persons opening the grave thought that jewelry, and perhaps other valuables, had been buried with the body of Ah Chock, and the miscreants were after taking it away. It is learned that nothing was there, however, so that the would-be thieves were wholly unrewarded.

Grave-robbing is a n unusual thing in the Islands, and there is a law against such acts.

Ah Chock was the founder of numerous business concerns in and about Kapaia, and when he died was worth quite a little money.

NEARLY $800 FROM ENTERTAINMENT

Companies L and M, National Guard of Hawaii, entertained a packed house in the Waimea hall Saturday evening, it being the first general entertainment of these companies given for the purpose of increasing their supply of cash on hand. Nearly $800 net were realized, which will be divided between the two commands.

The first feature of the evening was a picture show, put on by Fernandez. Then came drilling stunts and a kind of mock trial conducted by Judge Hofgaard, which was thought by those able to hear it to be quite amusing.

The final feature was the raffing of the car purchased by the companies sometime ago for that purpose. The winner was Miss Etta Lee, principal of the school at Makaweli, who, by the way, had bought the lucky number in a pool of tickets.

The affair concluded with a dance, which, from all accounts, lasted to a late hour.

SOME CHRISTENINGS

There were two interesting and impressive christening services on Sunday last.

The first was that of little Anna Gladys Stewart, in the Lihue Union church, at the close of the Easter Service, in the midst of a wealth of flowers and a large congregation of appreciative friends and admirers, none of which, however, disconcerted the little miss in the least. A pleasant innovation was the musical benediction at the close. Mrs. R. L. Wilcox acted as godmother, undertaking in an auxiliary way, the duties and responsibilities of parenthood.

The second was that of little Paul Malcolm Thompson, privately, at the de Bretteville home, in the midst of a small circle of friends. The victim in this case was a sturdy, active boy, more than usually robust and vigorous, and if the truth were known, he probably looked on the whole business as a nuisance; he would sooner be down on the floor racketing with the dog.

On this occasion also, Mrs. R. L. Wilcox acted as Godmother, and Mr. Charles Wilcox as Godfather.

A very delicious lunch followed the service.

TODAY'S AND LATEST NEWS BY WIRELESS

Sugar, 6.02.

Honolulu—Robert Benjamin, manager for Willie Hoppe, champion billiard player, bids $1,000 a week for Duke Kahanamoku to go on a tour. He says, however, that the recent defeat of Duke in the east decreases his value as a drawing card.

Trouble In Ireland?

London—Sir Roger Casement is caught carrying munitions to Irish. Disloyal separatists arrested, and German ship with arms and ammunition is sunk.

An Illegal Law

Washington—The sugar monopoly law is illegal. American refiners win in supreme court against planters.

Japanese Suspect Arrested

New York—A Japanese prisoner caught here may prove to be a spy. Certain plans and documents taken from him show reference to fortifications in California and the immigration question. He was first arrested for arguing with a conductor.

From Battle Fronts

London—The fortunes of war waver back and forth on various fronts. The Germans thrust vainly again and again at French positions at Dead Man's Hill, as Joffre strikes in the Argonne district.

French hand grenades win in Caillote woods. Turks claim defeat of the Russians in the Caucasus and to have driven the English back in Egypt (?)

Panama Canal Abandoned

Washington—American shipping interests abandon Panama canal. Representatives of principal lines tell inter-state commerce commission of decision. Years may elapse before big waterway is used. Disruption of traffic by slides and profitable foreign charters the cause.

Navy Auxiliaries

Navy will survey auxiliary ships and privately owned vessels that may be required in preparedness program.

Pearl Harbor Appropriation

Pearl Harbor gets $700,000 as continuing appropriation for carrying on work already started there.

Hints Of Peace

The submarine crisis with Germany shows faint signs of being bridged over. Powerful political influences are at work in Germany to prevent a rupture. The German chancellor hints at concessions, but advises American ambassador that the Kaiser will have to be consulted again.

Villa Moving Northward

Villa moves north again, apparently with the aim of cutting the American lines.

This is the latest report which also says that 2,500 men will soon join the bandit in the campaign against the Yankees in Mexico.

Shifting of troops will be for defensive purposes. General Funston is expected to redistribute expeditionary force to protect lines of communication and the border from attack.

THIRD BATTALION WINS AT SOCCER

The deciding game for the battalion soccer series was played last Sunday at Eleele field between the 3rd. Battalion and the Hospital Corps, resulting in a victory for the former with a score of 6 goals to one.

This gave the first series to the 3rd. battalion. A second series will be started during May, just previous to the opening of the baseball season.

The game in Lihue resulted in victory for the first battalion team over that of the second battalion, score being 2 to 0. Lieut. Avery refereed the game in Lihue, while Mr. Bayer officiated in that capacity at Eleele.

Final standing of teams:

	Won	Lost
Third Battalion	3	0
Hospital Corps	2	1
First Battalion	1	2
Second Battalion	0	3

Georgian Arrives

The freighter Georgian arrived at Port Allen yesterday morning, bringing 60 tons of freight and a mail for various Kauai offices. She is taking 37,000 bags of sugar and will get away this afternoon for the other islands.

Wm. T. Barkow, who was around Kauai last year for Huston's directory, is again here and will spend a week or ten days checking up the island.

RECEPTION FOR MRS. C. H. DICKEY

Over sixty ladies responded to the invitation of Mrs. F. A. Alexander Monday afternoon, the 17th., to meet Mrs. C. H. Dickey, of Honolulu, aunt of Mr. Alexander.

The afternoon was perfect and was most delightfully spent in conversation. Out on the lanai Mrs. Menetoglio served lovely punch, while in the parlor and dining room refreshments were passed. Mrs. B. D. Baldwin and Mrs. C. B. Hofgaard presided over the tea and coffee, assisted by Mrs. Douglas Baldwin, Miss Martin and Miss Marie Anderson.

The affair was one of the most delightful of the year.

A New Warehouse

An immense addition is being built onto the McBryde store in Eleele, it taking the position of the former warehouse. When completed the improvement will be very great indeed, and Manager Roendahl is to be congratulated upon it.

Sergeant Brown, who has been attached to the Fourth Infantry as drill sergeant, will leave this afternoon for Honolulu to confer with General Johnson.
